

Survey..Multilingual newsletter, yes or no?

We need your feedback regarding “Multilingual Newsletters”!

For years now, the HolleGreat newsletter is becoming increasingly attractive and popular among readers - not only in Germany, but worldwide.

Our monthly analysis showed us an increasing number of visitors from Europe, North America, South America and Asia.

Regular web-analytics showed that our site was accessed nearly 5000 times in a period of 4 weeks. This access was primarily from Germany, USA, Russia and France.

This gave us the opportunity to think about expanding our newsletter in 4 more languages. However, before we offer our future newsletters in English, French, German and Russian, we want your valuable opinion.

1. Would future newsletters in multiple languages be of interest to you?
2. What are the topics you would like to read about?
3. Would it benefit you if we offer the new website in multiple languages as well?

I am eagerly awaiting your feedback at:
